PROCEDURE

Smart and Skilled student fees

Under Smart and Skilled, a student contributes towards the cost of training through the payment of a student fee. Candidates can get an estimate of the fee for their preferred course in the Course Finder: https://smartandskilled.nsw.gov.au/sands/find-a-course Management Consultancy International charges the relevant fee set by the NSW Government. The fee is determined when MCI enters the student data into the Smart and Skilled Provider Calculator.

Student eligibility

5.2.1 To be eligible for training subsidised under the Smart and Skilled program, a candidate must:
   a) be an Australian Citizen, a permanent Australian resident, a humanitarian visa holder or a New Zealand citizen, and
   b) be aged 15 years or older, and
   c) live or work in NSW, and
   d) no longer be at school.

5.2.2 Candidates can check their eligibility for Smart and Skilled training in the Eligibility Checker: https://smartandskilled.nsw.gov.au/are-you-eligible

5.2.3 A student must provide evidence to support their eligibility for Smart and Skilled. Details of acceptable evidence are described in in Appendix 1 to this policy.
Fee exemption or concession

Students eligible for Smart and Skilled training who are Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander students, students with a disability or Australian Government welfare recipients may be eligible for a fee exemption or concession fees when enrolling in a Smart and Skilled course.

5.3.1 Fee exemptions are available to eligible students who:
   a) are Aboriginal or a Torres Strait Islander,
   b) meet the Smart and Skilled disability criteria for their first course commencement in a calendar year,
   c) are the dependants of disability support pension recipients, for their first course commencement in a calendar year.

5.3.2 Concession fees are available to eligible students who:
   a) are receiving one of the specified below Australian Government benefits or allowances at the time of their enrolment:
      - Aged Pension,
      - Austudy,
      - Carer Payment,
      - Disability Support Pension,
      - Exceptional Circumstances Relief Payment,
      - Farm Household Allowance,
      - Family Tax Benefit Part A (maximum rate),
      - Parenting Payment (single),
      - Newstart Allowance (note: a NSW apprentice or a NSW new entrant trainee on a Newstart Allowance are not eligible for a concession fee),
      - Special Benefit,
      - Sickness Allowance,
      - Veterans’ Children Education Scheme,
      - Veterans’ Affairs Pension,
      - Widow B Pension,
      - Widow Allowance,
      - Youth Allowance,
      - Wife Pension.
      - meet the Smart and Skilled disability criteria, for a second or further course in a calendar year,
      - are the dependants of disability support pension recipients, undertaking a second or further course in a calendar year.

5.3.3. A student must provide evidence to support their eligibility for a fee exemption or concession fees. Details of acceptable evidence are described in in Appendix 2 to this policy.

Additional costs

5.4.1 Incidental expenses

Management Consultancy International may charge additional costs to the student fee. These costs may include essential equipment or optional charges for an alternative form of access to an item or service (e.g. a hard copy of an online resource).
Any additional costs that students will or may incur will be published for each qualification on the MCI website: http://mci.edu.au/

5.4.2 Issuing embedded qualifications

A qualification may include all the units of competency required to complete a lower level qualification, an ‘embedded’ qualification.

In that case, a student may wish to be issued with a qualification for the lower level qualification in addition to the higher one they are enrolled in.

Management Consultancy International will charge a fee, in accordance with the MCI Fee Schedule, to produce the additional qualification.

5.4.3 Fees for repeat attempts to complete units of competency

Management Consultancy International’s students can have three (3) attempts to complete a unit of competency for their student fee. Fourth and subsequent attempts will incur an additional fee of for each attempt. Please refer to MCI Fee Schedule for further details.

Payment arrangements

MCI offers a variety of payment options which may include:

- Upfront payment the total student fees
- Payment plan, where a schedule of payments is provided to a student.

Students are required to pay the student fee or at least an enrolment fee prior to a course commencement date.

Students eligible for VET FEE-HELP assistance start repaying their HELP debt through the taxation system once their repayment income is above the compulsory repayment threshold. Further information on repayments can be found on http://studyassist.gov.au/sites/StudyAssist/

Withdrawal from training

Management Consultancy International determines the ‘withdrawal with no penalty’ cut-off date on seven (7) days before a course commencement.

Should a student wish to withdraw from a course, either prior to or after the cut-off date, the student must follow the procedure as outlined in the Withdrawal Policy.

If a student withdraws from training before the ‘withdrawal with no penalty’ cut-off-date, the student will be refunded any fees paid at enrolment, if applicable.

If a student withdraws from training after the ‘withdrawal with no penalty’ cut-off date, the student will be given a statement of all fees and fee refunds, if applicable.

If a withdrawal from training is a result of a student misconduct or plagiarism, no financial refund or reimbursement will be provided. Please see the MCI Student Handbook for further details.
Refund policy
Management Consultancy International provides refunds of student fees only in accordance with the Refund Policy.

Recovery of outstanding student fees
Outstanding student fees may include overdue: Smart and Skilled student fees, additional fees and charges and instalment plan payments, where applicable.

Where a student has an outstanding debt, a notice is generated within 2 weeks of the original invoice due date and sent to the MCI sales person. The MCI sales person will contact the student to follow up on any outstanding debt.

Where the student continues to have an outstanding debt, the student will not be issued a qualification or a statement of attainment until the outstanding fees are paid.

Fee protection mechanism
Management Consultancy International is a member of an Approved Tuition Assurance Scheme. This scheme can be found on the MCI website: https://mci.edu.au/documents/Statement%20of%20VET%20Tuition%20Assurance%20-%20Corporate.pdf
